

Reflective Reading on Islam

By Diane Shea

Description:

In this single-class activity, students use the homework questions to prompt a deeper engagement with the reading material in order to generate a better class discussion on the topic. Students engage in the material through various perspectives during a peer editing, self-corrective exercise. See a full description here.

