

How to Write Reading Annotations

By: Pheobe Jackson

Description:

In this single-class activity, students improve their reading annotation skills by evaluating, commenting on, and writing various kinds of annotations. See a full description here.

- Read Table 2 on three other kinds of annotations (clarify, connect, and extend)
- Read a text
- Annotate the text three times - once for each of the three types of annotations given in Table 2

Discuss and Review

Lead discuss of activities as a class.
Answer questions
Emphasize that students should be using the other types of annotations - not just Q&A.

Continue to do Social Annotations

Continue to socially annotate reading as a regular part of out-of-class work.
