

Part 2: Who Are We? (peer comparison)

1. Identify individualistic and collectivistic statements in Part 1. Which ones dominate? How would you explain this?
2. Compare your statements with a classmate's. Note 3 similarities and 3 differences. How do you think the different self-concepts are formed? (How) can they change? Discuss in your pair and be ready to share with the class.

